

Anonymous, first published with this tune in 1804 88. 88. (L. M.)

Lexington

Transcribed from The Farmer's Evening Entertainment, 1804.

D minor

Solomon Howe, 1804

Tr. C. T. B.

1. The Prince of Peace, whose gentle sway True life and light and joy con -

2. His word, that gives the pre - cious news Of par - don, both to Greeks and

Tr. C. T. B.

vey, From his ex - al - ted throne a - bove, The fruits of his ce - les - tial love. The Jews, Free - dom to eve - ry hum - ble mind, With bliss ex - al - ted and re - fined. As an - cient pro - phets long fore - told The Gos - pel time, more worth than gold; When great Mes - si - ah could con - vey His love to coo - ling wa - ters gent - ly flow, His grace shall heal each mor - tal woe; And grant re - lief from pain and sin, From fears with -

Tr. C. T. B.

Tr. C. T. B.

dis - tant lands and seas.

out and guilt with - in.