VIOLA

If I did love you in my master's flame,
 With such a suffering, such a deadly life,
 In your denial I would find no sense;
 I would not understand it.

OLIVIA

Why, what would you?

VIOLA

Make me a willow cabin at your gate,
 And call upon my soul within the house;
 Write loyal cantons of contemned love
 And sing them loud even in the dead of night;
 Halloo your name to the reverberate hills
 And make the babbling gossip of the air
 Cry out 'Olivia!'

O, You should not rest
 Between the elements of air and earth,
 But you should pity me!
