

Canaan

Anonymous author, first published in Ingalls 1805

11 9. 11 9. 87.

Transcribed from Ingalls' Christian Harmony, 1805;
Counter by B. C. Johnston, 2019..

D minor

Jeremiah Ingalls, 1805

1. Come all ye dear souls, who are of Adam's loin, Join with me for to seek sal - va - tion; With hearts full of friendship let us all com -
2. We've a lit - tle sis - ter, late - ly con-ver- ted, She brings to us good news from Ca - naan, Her soul's filled with Jesus, the world de - ser -
3. So once I did mourn, but O! now I can sing, And will praise my great Lord and Sa - vior; And when in the realms of my heavenly
4. But see the poor sinners, that stand at the bar, And des-pair of the hope of hea - ven; They tremble and shi - ver in dole - ful des -
5. Come all my dear brethren, let us travel on, Let us go to the land of Ca - naan; And when all our pil - gri-mage journey is

10
1. -bine, And seek for the good land of Ca - naan. Ca - na-an, Ca - na-an, my hap - py home, O how I long for Ca - na-an.
2. -ted, And now she lives shouting and prai - sing. Ca - na-an, Ca - na-an, my hap - py home, O how I long for Ca - na-an.
3. King, I will shout, and will sing for - ev - er. Ca - na-an, Ca - na-an, my hap - py home, O when shall I see Ca - na-an.
4. -pair, And from God's awful presence dri - ven. Ca - na-an, Ca - na-an, my hap - py home, O how I long for Ca - na-an.
5. done, Then we'll shout and we'll sing sal - va - tion. Ca - na-an, Ca - na-an, my hap - py home, O how we'll shout for Ca - na-an.

Edited by B. C. Johnston, 2019

1. Whole piece transposed down from D minor to C minor.
2. Counter part written.

Public Domain.