

Canaan

Anonymous author, first published in Ingalls 1805

11 9. 11 9. 87. Transcribed from Ingalls' Christian Harmony, 1805.

D minor

Jeremiah Ingalls, 1805

Tr.

1. Come all ye dear souls, who are of Adam's loin, Join with me for to seek sal - va - tion; With hearts full of
 2. We've a lit-tle sis - ter, late - ly con-ver- ted, She brings to us good news from Ca - naan, Her soul's filled with

T.

8 3. So once I did mourn, but O! now I can sing, And will praise my great Lord and Sa - vior; And when in the
 4. But see the poor sinners, that stand at the bar, And des- pair of the hope of hea - ven; They tremble and

B.

5. Come all my dear brethren, let us travel on, Let us go to the land of Ca - naan; And when all our

Tr.

1. friendship let us all combine, And seek for the good land of Ca - naan. Ca - na-an, Ca - na - an,
 2. Jesus, the world deserted, And now she lives shou-ting and prai - sing. Ca - na-an, Ca - na - an,

T.

8 3. realms of my heavenly King, I will shout, and will sing for ev - er. Ca - na-an, Ca - na - an,
 4. shiver in doleful despair, And from God's awful presence dri - ven. Ca - na-an, Ca- na - an,

B.

5. pilgrimage journey is done, Then we'll shout and we'll sing sal - va - tion. Ca - na-an, Ca - na- an,

Tr.

1. my happy home, O ____ how I long for Ca - na - an.
 2. my happy home, O ____ how I long for Ca - na - an.

T.

8 3. my happy home, O ____ when shall I see ____ Ca- na- an.
 4. my happy home, O ____ how I long for ____ Ca- na- an.

B.

5. my happy home, O ____ how we'll shout for Ca- na - an.