

Clapboardtree Grove

Transcribed from Belknap's The Harmonist's Companion, 1797.

Treble

Counter

Tenor

Bass

10

15

20

Tr.

C.

T.

B.

The gentle breeze which through the grove Does pleasing pleasure bring; And birds that set upon the trees With cheer - ful echoes sing. He

Let us that dwell around it here Bless and adore our God, orders all things by his word, He orders all things by his word, So let us praise the Lord.

Clapboard Tree Grove was a forest about 2½ miles southwest of Dedham.
It is now represented by Clapboardtree Street in the town of Westwood.