Largo

Tr.  5 10 15

1. Thanks be to God, whose faithful love Hath called another to his breast, Trans-la-ted him to joys a - bove,
2. He the good fight of faith hath won, He heard with joy the welcome word: Hi - ther come up, thy work is done
3. Thanks be to God, through Christ alone, Who gave our friend the vic - to - ry: O Master, say to me, Well done!

C.

4. Thus may we all our warfare end, In struggling to the upper skies Our last tri - um - phant moments spend
5. O that we all may thus break through, The crown with holy violence seize, The starry crown to conquest due,
6. Will not the righteous judge bestow The prize on all who seek him here, And long, while so - jour - ning below,

T.  8

7. We all shall see our life ap - pear, Our hidden life in Je - sus found, Our dust th'arch - an - gel's voice shall hear,
8. O what a soul - o'erpow'ring thought! 'Tis ec - sta - sy too great to bear! We all at once shall be up - caught,
9. E - ter - ni - ty stands forth in sight! We plunge us in that boundless sea, Ex - pa - tiate in those plains of light,

B.

Tr.  20

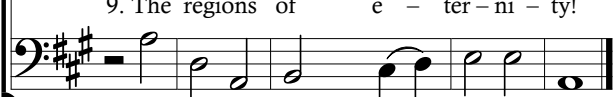

1. To mansions of e - ter - nal rest.
2. And reign for e - ver with thy Lord.
3. May I re - joice to die in thee.

C.

4. And grasp in death th'im - mor - tal prize.
5. The crown of life and righteousness.
6. To see their much - loved Lord ap - pear?

T.  8

7. And kindle at the trumpet's sound.
8. And meet our Je - sus in the air.
9. The regions of e - ter - ni - ty!
