

Anonymous Author
86. 86. (C. M.)

Clapboardtree Grove

Transcribed from Belknap's The Harmonist's Companion, 1797.

F Major
Daniel Belknap, 1797

Treble

Counter

Tenor

Bass

The gentle breeze which through the grove Does pleasing pleasure bring; And birds that set upon the trees With cheer - ful echoes sing.

Let

Tr.

C.

T.

B.

He orders all things by his word, He orders all things by his word, So let us praise the Lord.

us that dwell around it here Bless and adore our God,

Clapboard Tree Grove was a forest about 2½ miles southwest of Dedham.
It is now represented by Clapboardtree Street in the town of Westwood.
There would have been a small clapboard (house siding) mill there in 1797.