

O LORD, I LIFT MY HEART TO THEE

The Teares or Lamentacions of a Sorrowfull Soule (1614): No. 36

William Leighton (c.1565-1622), after Psalm 25:1

Orlando Gibbons (1583-1625)
ed. Ross Jallo

CANTUS
Alto I

QUINTUS
Alto II

ALTUS
Tenor I

TENOR
Tenor II

BASSUS
Bass

O Lord, O Lord, I lift my heart to O Lord, O Lord, I lift my heart to
O Lord, I lift my heart to Thee, my soul
O Lord, I lift my heart to Thee, my O Lord, I lift my heart to 6

Thee, my soul in Thee doth e - ver trust, Thee, my soul in Thee doth e - ver trust: O
in Thee doth e - ver trust, my soul in Thee doth e - ver trust:
soul in Thee doth e - ver trust, in Thee doth e - ver trust: O
Thee, my soul in Thee doth e - ver trust, in Thee doth e - ver trust: O

Gibbons - O Lord, I lift my heart to Thee

2

12

O let me not con-foun-ded be, O let me not con-foun-ded
 let me not con-foun-ded be, O let me not con-foun-ded be, O let me not con-foun-ded be, con-foun-ded be, but let me not con-foun-ded be, but make me
 let me not con-foun-ded be, O let me not con-foun-ded be,

17

be, but make me righ-teous with the just, just.
 but make me righ-teous with the just, with the just, O just.
 make me righ-teous with the just, me righ-teous with the just, just.
 righ-teous with the just, but make me righ-teous with the just, O just.
 but make me righ-teous with the just, O just.