

Anne Steele, 1760
88. 88. (L. M.)

St. Alban's
No copyright. Transcribed from The Charlestown Collection, 1803.

D minor
Oliver Holden, 1803

Treble 1. My God, when-e'er my long-ing heart Its grate-ful tri - bute would im -

Tenor 2. O let Thy grace my heart in - spire, And raise each lan - guid, weak de -

Bass 3. Thy name in - spires the harps a - bove With har - mo - ny, and praise, and

Tr. 10 part, In vain my tongue, with fee - ble aim, At - tempts the glo - ries of Thy

T. 8 siren; Thy grace, which con - de - scends to meet The sin - ner prostrate at Thy

B. love; That grace, which tunes th' im - mor - tal strings, Looks kind - ly down on mor - tal

Tr. 15 name. In vain my boldest thoughts arise, I sink to earth and lose the

T. 8 feet. With hum - ble fear let love u - nite And mix de - vo - tion with de -

B. things. O let Thy grace guide eve - ry song, And fill my heart and tune my

Tr. 20 skies: Yet may I still Thy grace im-plore, And low in dust Thy name a - dore.

T. 8 light; Then shall Thy name be all my - joy, Thy praise, my con-stant blest em - ploy.

B. tongue; Then shall the strain har - mon-ious flow, And heav'n's sweet work be - gin be - low.