

Isaac Watts, 1717
(Psalm 17, Part 1)

66. 86. (S. M.)

Justification

Transcribed from Devotional Harmony, 1800.

A minor

Merit Woodruff, 1800

Tr. I shall behold the face Of my for - gi - ving God; And stand complete in righteousness, Washed in my Savior's

C. I shall be - hold the face Of my for - gi - ving God; And stand complete in right - eous - ness, Washed in my Savior's

T. I shall behold the face Of my for - gi - ving God; And stand complete in righteousness, Washed in my Savior's

B. I shall be - hold the face Of my for - gi - ving God; And stand complete in right - eous - ness, Washed in my Savior's

Tr. 15 blood. There's a new heav'n begun, When I a - wake from death, Dressed in the like - ness of thy Son, Dressed in the like - ness of thy Son, And draw im - mor - tal breath.

C. blood. There's a new heav'n be - gun, When I a - wake from death, Dressed in the like - ness of thy Son, And draw im - mor - tal breath.

T. 8 blood. There's a new heav'n begun, When I a - wake from death, Dressed in the like - ness of thy Son, Dressed in the like - ness of thy Son, And draw im - mor - tal breath.

B. blood. There's a new heav'n be - gun, When I a - wake from death, Dressed in the like - ness of thy Son, And draw im - mor - tal breath.