TE DEUM

Thomas Tomkins

e praise thee, O God

We knowledge thee to be the Lord.

All the earth doth worship thee, the Father everlasting.

To thee all Angels cry aloud, the heavens and all the powers therein.

To thee Cherubin and Seraphin continually do cry,

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Sabaoth.

Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of thy glory.

The glorious company of the Apostles, praise thee.

The goodly fellowship of the prophets, praise thee.

The noble army of Martyrs, praise thee.

The holy Church throughout all the world doth knowledge thee,

The Father of an infinite Majesty,

Thine honorable, true and only Son,

Also the holy Ghost the Comforter.

Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ.

Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.

When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man, thou didst not abhor the Virgins wombe.

When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death, thou didst open the kingdom of Heaven to all believers.

Thou fittest on the right hand of God in the glory of the Father.

We believe that thou shalt come to be our Judge.

We therefore pray thee, help thy servants, whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbered with thy Saints, in glory everlasting.

O Lord, save thy people, and bless thine heritage.

Govern them and lift them up.

Day by day we magnify thee,

And we worship thy name ever world without end.

Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.

O Lord, have mercy up us, have mercy upon us.

O Lord, let thy mercy lighten upon us, as our trust is in thee.

O Lord, in thee have I trusted: let me never be confounded.

The Third Service JUBILATE

Thomas Tomkins

be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands,

serve the Lord with gladness,
and come before his presence with a Song.
Be ye sure that the Lord he is God,
we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
O goe your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise, be thankful unto him, and speak good of his name. For the Lord is gracious,
his mercy is everlasting,
and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

Glory be to the Father,
and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now,
and ever shall be,
world without end,
Amen.

NOTES ON THIS EDITION

Source. Facsimiles of original part-books of the 1668 collection Musica Deo Sacra, held in the library of Christ Church, Oxford. Original notated pitch and note lengths are retained. Editorial accidentals are included in brackets. Some rests, note values and decani-cantoris allocations have been amended to make the score as a whole coherent.

Organ. The part as printed in 1668 is reproduced here with no further filling-in of harmonies.

Bar-lines. The pattern in the partbooks is repeated here – bar-lines are not given for the voice parts, but are for the organ; the source describes them as “partitions”

Longer notes. The lack of modern bar-lines means there is no need for tied notes at the end of a “bar”. Where this results in the duration of a note extending beyond the end of the printed “system”, a “custos” symbol is added in the right-hand margin alongside the note as an extra reminder.

Accidentals. Accidentals are applied to every relevant note. No accidental next to a particular note (or in the key signature) means that it is “natural”.

Text underlay. Spellings have been standardized, but not modernized – the original spelling gives potentially the best indication of the Original Pronunciation. Melismas are indicated in the original part-books by a mixture of slurs between notes and hyphens between syllables, but the practice is neither entirely consistent nor complete. The original slurs are reproduced in this edition, along with an editorial view of the placement of the text where this is not completely clear in the source.

SicutEsset...

SicutEsset editions are transcriptions from early or original sources, presenting the music that the composer wrote “then” in a style that a performer might expect to read it “now”.

Any changes in presentation are limited to things that do not affect how the music will sound, only how it will look on the page. This means that modern-style bars and bar-lines are not inserted where these are not present in the source material. Whilst they might assist readability and rehearsals, they could also affect the sound by creating an assumption of a particular pattern of stresses and emphases. These matters – like the dynamics and tempi often added editorially to modern editions – are for the performer to decide, on the basis of what the composer actually wrote.

I would appreciate any feedback – or news about use of one of these editions. Please email me at SicutEsset@gmail.com
