

Ye men on earth, in God rejoice

Uriah Davenport

Text: Thomas Sternhold, on Ps. 66

PSALM LXVI.

This edition by Edmund Gooch released into the public domain, June 2011.

[Soprano & Bass]

Ye men on earth, in God re - joice; With praise set forth his name:
 All men that dwell the earth through - out Shall praise the name of God;
 He laid the sea like heaps on high, There - in a way they had
 Ye peo - ple, give un - to our God Due laud and thanks al - ways;

Ye men on earth, in God re - joice; With praise set forth his name:
 All men that dwell the earth through - out Shall praise the name of God;
 He laid the sea like heaps on high, There - in a way they had
 Ye peo - ple, give un - to our God Due laud and thanks al - ways;

8 [Alto & Tenor]

Ex - tol his might with heart and voice, Give glo - ry to the same.
 The laud where - of the world a - bout Is shew'd and set a - broad.
 On foot to pass, both fair and dry, Where - of their hearts were glad.
 With joy - ful voice de - clare a - broad, And sing un - to his praise:

Ex - tol his might with heart and voice, Give glo - ry to the same.
 The laud where - of the world a - bout Is shew'd and set a - broad.
 On foot to pass, both fair and dry, Where - of their hearts were glad.
 With joy - ful voice de - clare a - broad, And sing un - to his praise:

15

How won - der - ful, O Lord, say ye, In all thy works thou art:
 All folk come forth, be - hold and see What things the Lord hath wrought;
 His might doth rule the world al - way, His eyes all things be - hold;
 Who doth en - due our soul with life, And it pre - serve with - al;

How won - der - ful, O Lord, say ye, In all thy works thou art:
 All folk come forth, be - hold and see What things the Lord hath wrought;
 His might doth rule the world al - way, His eyes all things be - hold;
 Who doth en - due our soul with life, And it pre - serve with - al;

How won - der - ful, O Lord, say ye, In all thy works thou art:
 All folk come forth, be - hold and see What things the Lord hath wrought;
 His might doth rule the world al - way, His eyes all things be - hold;
 Who doth en - due our soul with life, And it pre - serve with - al;

How won - der - ful, O Lord, say ye, In all thy works thou art:
 All folk come forth, be - hold and see What things the Lord hath wrought;
 His might doth rule the world al - way, His eyes all things be - hold;
 Who doth en - due our soul with life, And it pre - serve with - al;

Ye men on earth, in God rejoice (Uriah Davenport)

2

22

Thy foes for fear shall seek to thee, Full sore a - gainst their heart.
 Mark well the wondrous works that he For men to pass hath brought.
 And such as will him dis - o - bey, By him shall be con - troll'd.
 He stays our feet, so that no strife Can make us slip or fall.

Thy foes for fear shall seek to thee, Full sore a - gainst their heart.
 Mark well the wondrous works that he For men to pass hath brought.
 And such as will him dis - o - bey, By him shall be con - troll'd.
 He stays our feet, so that no strife Can make us slip or fall.

Thy foes for fear shall seek to thee, Full sore a - gainst their heart.
 Mark well the wondrous works that he For men to pass hath brought.
 And such as will him dis - o - bey, By him shall be con - troll'd.
 He stays our feet, so that no strife Can make us slip or fall.

Thy foes for fear shall seek to thee, Full sore a - gainst their heart.
 Mark well the wondrous works that he For men to pass hath brought.
 And such as will him dis - o - bey, By him shall be con - troll'd.
 He stays our feet, so that no strife Can make us slip or fall.

Emendations: Original clefs treble, alto, tenor and bass; the original time signature was retorted time. Only the first stanza of the text is given in the source: three subsequent stanzas have here been underlaid editorially.