The 'Flat' Service
MAGNIFICAT

SOPRANO

Edited & reconstructed
by David Allinson

Third revision, April 2013

Edmund Hooper (c1553-1621)
hath regarded the lowli ness of His handmaid en for he hold from hence forth all gene rations shall call me bless
-
All generations shall call me blessed, shall call me blessed, all generations shall call me blessed—

For he that is mighty, hath magnified me, hath magnified me, hath magnified me, hath mf

For he that is mighty, hath magnified me, hath magnified me, hath dim.

VERSE

He shewed strength with His arm, through all generations. He hath shewed strength with His arm, the proud, and the weak. Have we not heard, hath He not declared it? He shewed strength with His arm, strength with His arm, He hath scattered the proud, He hath shewed strength with His arm. He hath shewed strength with His arm, He hath shewed strength with His arm, He hath shewed strength with His arm.
He hath scattered the proud, in the imaginations of their hearts,
in the imaginations of their hearts.

Third revision, April 2013
Third revision, April 2013

VERSE

He hath put down, the migh-ty from their seat,

and hath ex-al-ted the hum-ble and meek.
Verse

S. 98

way. He re mem b'ring His mer cy hath hol pen his ser vant Is

A. 98

way. He re mem b'ring His mer cy hath hol pen His

T. 98

way. He re mem b'ring His mer cy hath hol pen his

B. 98

way. He re mem b'ring his mer - Ghost, and to the Holy Ghost; as...
\[ \text{S.} \quad \text{A.} \quad \text{T.} \quad \text{B.} \quad \text{Org.} \]

\[ \text{dim. e rall.} \]

\[ \text{Third revision, April 2013} \]