

Full Bags, a brisk Bottle

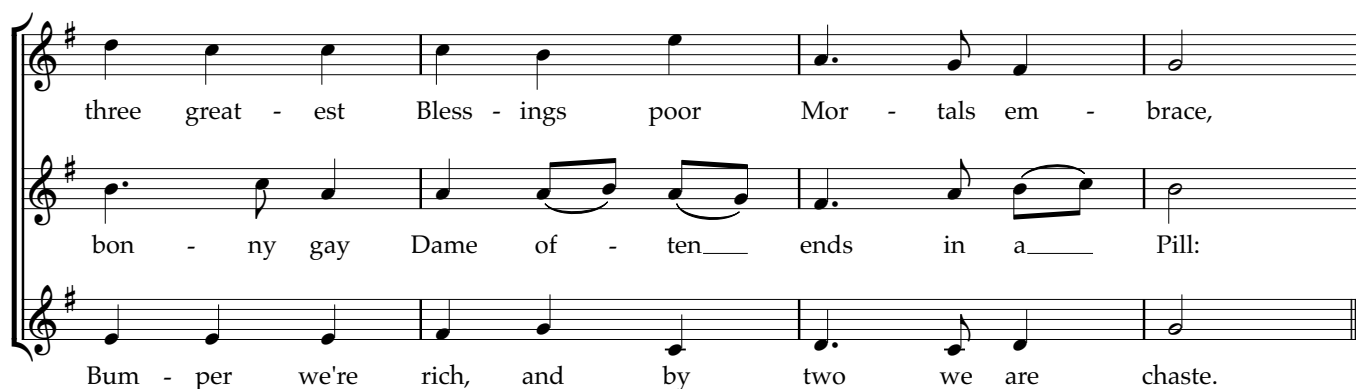

The Catch Club or Merry Companions, c. 1700

the words by Cob. Allistree

Henry Purcell (1659-1695)
ed. Raymond Nagem

[1.] Full Bags, a brisk Bot - tle, and a Beau - ti - ful Face, are the [2.] but a - las, we grow Muck-worms if Bags do but fill, and a [3.] then hey for brisk Clar - et, whose Plea - sures ne'er waste, by a three great - est Bless - ings poor Mor - tals em - brace, bon - ny gay Dame of - ten ends in a Pill:

Bum - per we're rich, and by two we are chaste.