

Intercession

Transcribed from The Middlesex Harmony, 1795.

Tr. 5 10 15
1. Pardon and grace and boundless love, Streaming along a Sa - vior's blood; And life, and joys, and crowns above, Dear purchased by a blee - ding God! _____

T. 8
2.. Go, you that rest up - on the law, And toil, and seek sal - va - tion there; Look to the flames that Moses saw, And shrink and tremble and des - pair!

B.

Tr. 20 25 30
1. Hark, how he prays (the charming sound Dwells on his dying lips) Forgive, Forgive, For - give; And every groan and gaping wound Cries, "Father, Father, let the rebels live!"

T.
2.. But I'll re - tire beneath the cross; Sa - vior, at thy dear feet I lie: I lie, I lie; And the keen sword that justice draws, Flaming red, fla - ming, it shall pass me by.
