This piece appears in a number of late 16th / early 17th Century sources, untexted save for the words Amavit eum Dominus, or just Amavit. The text is designated as an antiphon or responsory common of confessors and martyrs. Two contrafacta of this piece to English texts exist: I lift my heart to thee and Deliver me, O Lord.

Translation: The Lord loved him and adorned him. He clothed him with a robe of glory and crowned him at the gates of paradise.
