

Tennessee

Tr. How shall af - fright - ed mor - tals dare To sing thy glory or thy grace? Be - neath thy feet we lie so far, And see but shadows of thy face.

C. How shall af - fright - ed mor - tals dare To sing thy glory or thy grace? Be - neath thy feet we lie so far, And see but shadows of thy face.

T. How shall af - fright - ed mor - tals dare To sing thy glory or thy grace? Be - neath thy feet we lie so far, And see but shadows of thy face. Who

B. Who can behold the

Tr. Who can behold the blazing light? Who can approach consuming flame? None but thy wis - dom knows thy might; None but thy word can speak thy name.

C. Who can behold the blazing light? Who can approach consuming flame? None but thy wis - dom knows thy might; None but thy word can speak thy name.

T. can behold the blazing light? Who can approach consuming flame? None but thy wis - dom knows thy might; None but thy word can speak thy name.

B. Who can approach consuming flame? Who can approach consuming flame? None but thy wis - dom knows thy might; None but thy word can speak thy name.