Adorn thy bridal chamber, O Sion, and receive Christ the King: embrace Mary, who is the gate of heaven, who herself truly brings the glorious King of new light. She remains a virgin, though bearing in her hands a Son begotten before the daystar, whom Simeon, taking him in his arms, proclaimed to the people to be the Lord of life and death, and Saviour of the world.

Liturgical function: Processional antiphon, Feast of the Purification.

Part of my complete edition of the published vocal works of William Byrd made available through the Choral Public Domain Library (<http://www.cpdl.org>). For general editorial notes, please visit my user page at <http://www.cpdl.org/wiki/index.php/User:DaveF>. All scores are made freely available for downloading, printing, performing and recording. No conditions are attached beyond those specified in the CPDL licence, although it's always good to hear of any performances. Please do not, without consulting me, make copies of my scores available through other websites - there's no need, first of all, as CPDL is always here, and secondly by doing so you put these editions beyond my control and so will miss out on any updates and revisions.
