

Thomas Gray
(1716-71)

Here rests his head

Jonathan Battishill
(1738-1801)

Soprano

Here rests his head u - pon the lap of earth, A youth to for - tune and to fame un -

Alto

Here rests his head u - pon the lap of earth, A youth to for - tune and to fame un -

Bass

Here rests his head u - pon the lap of earth, A youth to for - tune and to fame un - known: Fair Sci-ence frown'd not on his hum-ble birth, And

S

A

known: Fair Sci-ence frown'd not on his hum - ble birth, And Me-

B

known: Fair Sci - ence frown'd not on his hum-ble birth, And

S

Me - lan - cho - ly mark'd him for her own. Large was his lan-cho - ly mark'd him for her own. Large was his

A

B

Me - lan - cho - ly mark'd him for her own. Large was his

S

boun - ty, and his soul sin - cere, Heav'n did a re - com-pense as

A

boun - ty, and his soul sin - cere, Heav'n did a re-com - pense as

B

boun - ty, and his soul sin - cere, Heav'n did a re-com - pense as

25

S large - ly send; — He gave to mis'-ry all he had, a tear; — He gain'd from

A large-ly send; — He gave — to mis'-ry all — he had, a tear; — He gain'd from

B large-ly send; He gave to mis'-ry all he had, a tear; He gain'd from 30

S heav'n 'twas all he wish'd, — a friend. No far-ther seek his me-rits to dis -

A heav'n 'twas all he wish'd, — a friend. No far-ther seek — his me-rits to dis -

B heav'n 'twas all he wish'd, a friend. No far - ther seek his me-rits to dis -

35

S close, — Or draw his frail-ties from their dread a - bode: There they a -

A close, — Or — draw — his — frail- — ties from their dread a - bode: There they a -

B close, Or draw his frail-ties from their dread a - bode: There they a -

40

S like in tremb-ling hope re - pose, — The bo- som of his Fa-ther, his

A like in tremb- ling hope re - pose, The bo- som of his Fa- ther, his Fa -

B like in tremb-ling hope re - pose, The bo - som of his Fa-ther, his

45

S Fa - ther and his God, the bo- som of his Fa- ther and his God.

A ther and his God, the bo-som of his Fa - ther and his God.

B Fa - ther and his God, the bo-som of his Fa- ther, his Fa - ther and his God.

50

S Here rests his head - Battishill

A Here rests his head - Battishill

B Here rests his head - Battishill