

The righteous live for evermore

In piam memoriam Victoriae Reginae

Charles Hartford Lloyd
(1849-1919)

The righteous love for ever more;
their reward also is with the Lord;
and the care of them is with the Most High.

Therefore shall they receive a glorious kingdom,
and a beautiful crown from the Lord's hand.

For with His right hand shall He cover them,
and with His arm shall He protect them.

Wisdom 5: 15, 16

Charles Harford Lloyd (1849-1919) was born in Gloucestershire and studied at Magdalen Hall, Oxford. While there, he, along with his friend Hubert Parry, founded the Oxford Musical Club. He was the club's first president. He was appointed organist at Gloucester in 1876 and at Christ Church Cathedral, Oxford, in 1882. In 1892, he became a music teacher at Eton College. Upon his retirement in 1914, he was appointed organist at the Chapel Royal. His choral compositions are mostly anthems and part-songs but he did write a number of cantatas, odes, and instrumental works.

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

- please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
- please refrain from using an edition as a basis for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
