

All praise to you, O Lord

Hymnal 1982 no. 138, Melody: Carlisle

Hyde W. Beadon
(1812-1891)

Charles Lockhart
(1745-1815)

1. All praise to you, O Lord, who
2. You speak, and it is done; o -
3. Oh, may this grace be ours: in 4. So, led from strength to strength, grant by your might-y pow'r did man - i - fest your be - dient to your word, the wa - ter - red - d'ning you al - ways to live and drink of those re - us, O Lord, to see the mar - riage sup - per glo - ry forth in Ca - na's mar - riage hour.

in - to wine pro - claims the pres - ent Lord.
fresh - ing streams which you a - lone can give.
of the Lamb, the great e - piph - a - ny.