Detailed description: The image shows four staves of musical notation for a choral setting of 'Alleluia'. The staves are labeled Soprano (Sop.), Alto, Tenor (Ten.), and Bass. Each staff begins with a treble clef (except for the Bass staff which has a bass clef) and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The Soprano part starts with a half note G4, followed by quarter notes A4, B4, and C5, then a half note B4, and finally a whole note G4. The Alto part starts with a half note G4, followed by quarter notes A4, B4, and C5, then a half note B4, and finally a whole note G4. The Tenor part starts with a half note G4, followed by quarter notes A4, B4, and C5, then a half note B4, and finally a whole note G4. The Bass part starts with a half note G3, followed by quarter notes A3, B3, and C4, then a half note B3, and finally a whole note G3. The lyrics are: 'ia, al - - - - le - lu - - ia.' for Soprano, 'ia, al - - le - lu - - - - ia.' for Alto, 'ia, al - le - lu - - - - ia.' for Tenor, and 'ia, al - - - - le - lu - - ia.' for Bass. There are various musical ornaments such as slurs and ties throughout the score.

24 This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it. 1 O give thanks unto the Lord; for he is good: because his mercy endureth for ever. Alleluia.
