

Unknown Author
First published in 1800

Dedicatory Hymn

No copyright. Transcribed from Plain Psalms, 1800.

D Major
Oliver Holden, 1800

Treble

Counter

Tenor

Bass

Tr.

C.

T.

B.

1. Let flowing numbers sweetly rise, And waft our praises to the skies,

Let flowing numbers sweetly rise, And

1. Let flowing numbers sweetly rise, And waft our praises to the skies, waft our praises to the skies, For all the blessings life bestows, And all the joys the gospel shows, And all the joys the gospel shows.

2. Here in Thy courts we prostrate bow, To offer up this solemn vow: To dedicate this sacred place, And celebrate redeeming grace.	3. Now may the King of Zion hear! His glory in this house appear! And, as in Israel's ancient days, Accept the offering and the praise.	4. Here may the saints with truth be fed, Pure from the gospel's fountain head; Here let the sinner hear his doom, And timely flee the wrath to come.	5. O may the church, in every place, Increase in numbers and in grace; Till all the ransomed millions rise To shout redemption through the skies.
---	--	--	--