Source: Sacrorum Concentuum (1594) Venice: Gardano. The title-page of each partbook reads:

[PART NAME IN LATIN]/SACRORVM/CONCENTVVM/Octonis, Den: Duoden: & Sexdenis/vocibus modulandorum./AUTHORE CLAVDIO MERVLO/Corrigieni, ab Organis Serenissimi/Parmae & Plac: Ducis, & c./LIBER PRIMVS./Nunc primum editus./[COAT OF ARMS]/Venetijs, Apud Angelum Gardanum/[RULE]/M.D.LXXXIII.

Some archaic features of the source orthography have been modernised. The present motet is no. 7 in the publication.

Transcribed from a digital facsimile held by the Bavarian State Library. In this set of partbooks, it would appear that four are missing (following the naming conventions of the partbooks present, presumably Nonus, Decimus, Undecimus and Duodecimus). While this does not affect the 8-part pieces in the collection, it renders the 10, 12 and 16-part pieces untranscribable from this particular source. No mention of this is made in the library catalogue.

Editorial method:

Original part names, mensuration signs, note durations and pitch have been retained. Clefs have been modernised, with originals appearing in prefatory staves. The overall range of each part appears before the initial mensuration sign.

Editorial accidentals appear above the stave, whereas courtesy accidentals appear in parentheses. The cautionary accidentals present in the source (a few naturals that are, strictly speaking, redundant) have been retained. Certain sharps have been respelled as naturals in the appropriate places. Ligatures are presented by continuous square brackets above the stave, and coloration by interrupted square brackets.

Text and translation: All punctuation save for the final full stop is editorial.

*Anima nostra sustinet Dominum: quoniam adiutor et protector noster est.
Quia in eo laetabitur cor nostrum: et in nomine sancto eius speravimus.
Fiat misericordia tua, Domine, super nos: quemadmodum speravimus in te.*

Our soul hath patiently tarried for the Lord: for he is our help and our shield.
For our heart shall rejoice in him: because we have hoped in his holy Name.
Let thy merciful kindness, O Lord, be upon us: like as we do put our trust in thee.

Source: Ps. 32:20-22. Translation taken from 1662 BCP.

Critical notes: Comprising source readings not retained in the Edition, given in the order bar, part, object, comment.

This musical score consists of eight staves, each representing a different voice part. The voices are labeled on the left: C., 5., 8., A., 6., T., 7., and B. The music is in common time and uses a treble clef for most voices and a bass clef for the T., 7., and B. voices. Measure 62 begins with a forte dynamic. The lyrics are in Latin, with some words like 'ra' and 'vi' repeated. Measures 7 and B. feature bass parts. The vocal parts are mostly in soprano range, with bass parts appearing in measures 7 and B.
