

Christ Hospital (Psalm 107)

Transcribed from Ravenscroft, The Whole Booke of Psalmes, 1621.

Soprano

Bass

1. Give thanks unto the Lord our God, For very kind is he: And that his mercy hath no end, All mortal men may see.

2. Such as the Lord redeem-ed hath And show how they from foes were freed,
With thanks shall praise his name: And how he wrought the same.

3. Let men therefore before the Lord Confess his goodness then: And show the wonders that he doth Before the sons of men.

4. And let them offer sac-ri-fice To him most thankfully: And speak of all his wondrous works With gladness and with joy.

5. Let them in presence of the folk With praise extol his name: And where the elders do convene, There let them do the same.

6. But yet the poor he raiseth up Out of his troubles deep: And often does his train augment, Much like a flock of sheep.

7. The righteous shall behold this light, And also much rejoice: Whereas the wicked and perverse With grief shall stop their voice.

8. But who is wise that know full well He may these things record; For certainly such shall perceive The kindness of the Lord.
