

A Better Home

Charles A. Tindley, 1901

Transcribed from Soul Echoes, 1909.

F Major
Charles A. Tindley, 1901

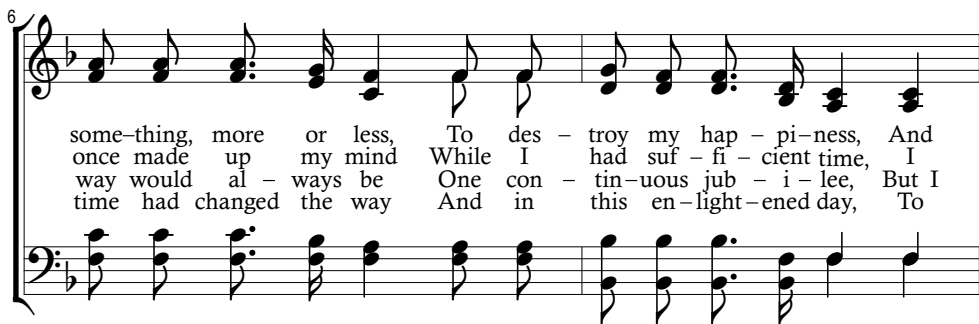

1. Ev - er since I have been Liv - ing in this world of sin, I have
2. It was when I was young I be - gan to think up - on My con -
3. When I real - ized I had Found the Lord, I was so glad, For I
4. Old Sa - tan tried to get Me to live a hyp - o - crite, And to

4. had tri - als al - most eve - ry day; Al - ways
di - tion as a sin - ner un - saved; And at thought all my tri - als would be done; That my
on - ly have an out - ward form; He said

6. some - thing, more or less, To des - troy my hap - pi - ness, And once made up my mind While I had suf - fi - cient time, I way would al - ways be One con - tin - uous jub - i - lee, But I time had changed the way And in this en - light - ened day, To

8. this is how I've come all the way:
would bow on my knees and pray. I have start - ed out to find a better found out my trials had just be - gun.
do what - e'er you please is no harm.

Chorus

11

home, Where the tri-als of thisworldcan nev-er come; There with 14

rel - a - tives and friends, I shall be so hap - py then, In the 16

pre - sence of the Lord all the time.