

Mount Hope

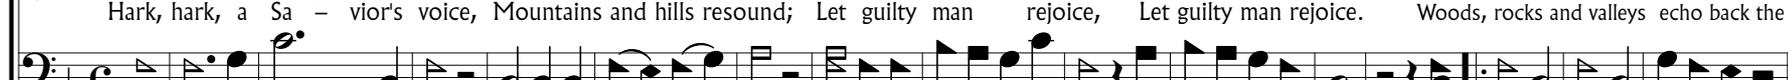

A Duet

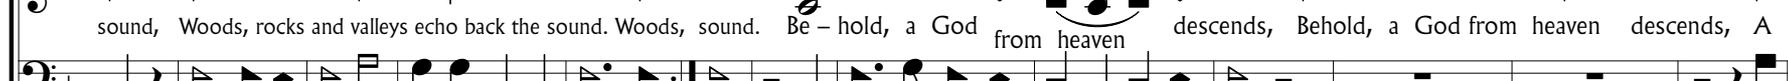

Thomas Odiorne (1769-1851)

Transcribed from Wyeth's Repository, Part Second, 1813.

F Major

Elkanah Dare, 1813

Tr.  5 10 15
B.
Hark, hark, a Sa - vior's voice, Mountains and hills resound; Let guilty man rejoice, Let guilty man rejoice. Woods, rocks and valleys echo back the

Tr.  20 1. 2. 25
B. sound, Woods, rocks and valleys echo back the sound. Woods, sound. Be - hold, a God from heaven descends, Behold, a God from heaven descends, A

Tr.  30 35 40 45
B. clement God kind au - dience lends; Pities the plaint of woe, Subdues th'in-fer-nal foe; Then drops a tear on human crimes, Then drops a tear on human

Tr.  50 55 1. 2.
B. crimes, And makes man heir to happier, happier climes, And makes man heir to happier, happier climes And climes.